This specific training in medical/therapeutic work includes reflective practice that can be intense or even overwhelming for some people. It could also aggravate certain predisposition to illnesses. We would like to make you aware that you may want to access professional support during or following the IPMT.

Cancellation Policy: Participants cancellation requests must be received in writing (emailed and received, or postmarked) before June 25, 2016 for a full refund, less a $100 cancellation fee. Cancellation requests received after June 25 will not be eligible for a refund, but another person may be substituted, for a $50 administration fee. Telephone cancellations cannot be honoured. Email cancellations will be promptly acknowledged by return email; until then you cannot assume they have been received.

Scholarships: The Ileen MacPherson Trust and Jochen Pohl Medical Therapeutic Trust are providing a scholarship fund for those needing financial assistance to attend the IPMT and who intend using the training to support their anthroposophically oriented professional work. In 2017, this fund will be administered by the IPMT.

Scholarship applications need to include your reason for attending, professional status, a letter of support from a professional colleague or employer as referee and your level of financial need. Please apply early. Funds for assistance were oversubscribed last year. Preference will be given to applicants who have initiated an instalment payment plan for their IPMT 2017 fees.

A report reflecting upon your IPMT experience and its value to your professional work is required as a follow up by the respective granting organisations as part of the scholarship process.

Please mail/email your application to the registrar (Mary Green ipmt2017@weledatrust.org.nz) before Sunday May 21 2017 to be included in the scholarship granting process.

Programme and faculty subject to change, every effort is made to insure content stays the same. However if a workshop's numbers deviate from those anticipated; workshops will decrease or increase.

The IPMT training week is supported by the Australian Anthroposophic Medicine Association (AAMA). For information about their work see <http://www.aamaanthro.com>

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you on Wednesday July 12, 2017.
