You may wear what you like but if you are in possession of a eurythmy dress and veil this is the preferred attire. In the absence of a eurythmy dress the clothes should be loose-fitting and cover the whole of the arms and legs, longish skirts (but not so long as to trip over them) being preferred to baggy pants, though men should feel free to opt for pants. Please bring eurythmy shoes or some other form of shoes with a thin, soft sole, and in the absence of these, at least thick socks with some grip at the bottom. Being barefoot is not suggested.
